

JIJ BENT AWESOME!!!

I had to say that first. Now, we're going to have deep conversation.

First. Thank you for calling me AWESOME. I know I am. I am amazing. Obviously. And so are you. Obviously. You said that I have grown over the year but, so have you. You are not the same person you were 5 years ago. You can see it in everything. The way you act. The way you speak. The way you walk. Everything. Working full time really gave you some real character development. You became this girlboss, leader, strong. Powerful superwoman. I really wanted to make that clear.

Next, oh yeah... Our way to expansive date at Dadawan that you paid for. That was a good day. Good convo's. Especially when you came up with that "Describe yourself in three words" game. Sorry that I can't remember what your answer was. If I had to answer for you, it would probably be something like girlboss, leader, supermama. I believe at the time I said something like Depressed, Hopeless, romanticus. And I probably said that because I've never found love in my life, while everyone around me did. About the depressed part... I guess I said that because I don't think that I enjoy the stuff that I do in my life. Hanging out with you is great of course, but other things like school, or other stuff. Or maybe it's because I'm not doing what I'm supposed to be doing. (I don't really know yet what I am supposed to be doing, though.) Also, I'm getting kind of tired of being alone. (Not that I know any better, but still.) And everyone keeps telling me that there will be someone someday, but it's taking a bit too long now. So, in my head I keep arguing with myself about whether I should just accept being alone and move on, or... do something else? I don't know...

Anyway now I'm going to stop being an ass, and start reading all the nice stuff you wrote about me. (Proceeds to read the end of day 17.) Awwhh, thx Zoë!! I can't really see all the things that you see in me, but I appreciate it a lot that you can see all those things in me, and that you associate me with those kind words.

And yes, you are also my number 1 person on this stupid rock we call earth.

Love you,

Xx jer
